Dear Parent/Guardian:

The Introduction to Tourism class at the University of Belize is going on its second field trip for this semester on Thursday November 5 and it is an overnight visit; group 2 departs on November 6. This trip will take us to the Chaa Creek Cottages which is just outside of San Ignacio. Providing that your student at the University of Belize is under 18 years of age, we therefore require your consent indicating that you agree that the student can participate and will be responsible for his or her actions. There is a cost for this visit which is $100 which will include transportation, accommodation, dinner, beverages, breakfast, a tour, and lunch.

By affixing your name and signature, you agree to give permission for your student to participate in this field trip.
